

2010 Flood Warning Systems, Technologies and Preparedness Conference
23rd Conference and Exposition of the ALERT Users Group
Palm Springs Hilton: May 4th – 7th, 2010

The ALERT Users Group announces exhibitor opportunities for firms that provide products and services in the real time flood warning field. The theme for the 2010 ALERT Users Group Conference will be;

Optimize Your Professional Development

This nationally known and respected conference will be held in Palm Springs California, May 4th through May 7th, 2010. This event has been held for the past twenty seven years, providing valuable opportunities to meet leading personnel and organizations in the field. Exhibition space can fill quickly and location will be assigned on a first come first serve basis. Many attendees at the conference are seeking product and service information to support the development and/or enhancement of their community's programs and make decisions based on what is displayed at the Exposition. The focus will be on the training and technology advances needed to maintain the critical readiness levels in the widespread networks of western United States. Because of the prominence this conference has had in the past, we will also attract attendees from across the country. A Call for Abstracts has been issued in mid 2009 for those wishing to make a presentation or provide a workshop at the conference. Conference details are posted on the www.alertsystems.org web site.

The exhibitor coordinators John Huber or Kim Blair may be contacted at augadmin@alertsystems.org
